

IRISH AND STEWART.

When General Irish of California and Senator Stewart of Nevada met in debate at the Ogden Congress, each found in the other a foeman worthy of his steel. It was a battle of eloquence and rhetoric on one side against argument, sound logic and reasoning on the other. Irish secured his applause from the unthinking lovers of oratory and word painting, and Stewart got his from the masses; those who are so placed that they must think and reason for themselves. This applause came from the home, the fireside; it came from the throats of those who recognized in him a champion of their cause because it was a just one. They realized that he cared naught for any personal gain or favor; he was uttering an overwhelming argument in behalf of the toilers throughout the land, and applause coming from the hearts of such men as these must have been a welcome sound to the noble old champion as he stood bareheaded in the midst of that vast concourse of people, overthrowing all gold bug arguments and trampling under foot the lies, frauds and villainies practiced by the enemies of honest money.

Rather Extravagant.

Jonathan Stanhope is a wealthy farmer. He is 84 years old, a widower, and very eccentric. Recently he went to Richmond and presented his check for $3,800 to Postmaster Jenkinson, asking that Columbian stamps be given in exchange. The Postmaster was unable to fill the order, but Stanhope insisted upon leaving the check, and the stamps have been ordered from Washington. Stanhope said that he had decided to paper the parlor of his home with Columbian stamps of one, two and five cents, and he has estimated that it will cost $3,800 to carry out his project. Word was sent to his son, who lives in Kansas City, and young Stanhope is already at Richmond trying to prevent his father from carrying out his purpose.

The fight in the coming campaign is between the free silver forces of the West and South against the gold bug aristocracy of the East. Cleveland Democracy is Wall street politics pure and simple, and that is emphatically a single gold standard and a high tariff. Cleveland will fail to have the tariff repealed, and will try to bring about the other. Free silver and Wall street Democracy cannot long train together. There will be a clash sometime. Then the People's party will grow like a cottonwood tree. The conflict between the South and West and the East is at hand. It cannot long be avoided. The people are moving.—Free Press, Winfield, Kansas.

Peterje Zmrchizkowschelowak and John Zsaczekzkorkarkowski, are the harmonious names of two Buffalo men. By pronouncing their names through your nose it will cure catarrh and you are not liable to "poll your teeth."

At the trial of a Chinaman who had committed murder, in Sacramento, a juror was excused who said he thought a Chinaman's oath was as good as a white man's. The reflection on the Celestial's sense of honor deserved the rebuke.

The Dead Alive.

Saranac Lake, N. Y., May 3. — A woman named Carson, residing near Lake Kushavagua, having apparently died of heart disease, was laid out in a coffin, and while a wake was being held last night those in the death chamber were horrified to see the supposed corpse rise to a sitting position. Nearly all those present were women and they ran out screaming in terror.

A daughter of Mrs. Carson fell out side the house and expired. The mother, in a bewildered way, slowly emerged from the coffin and gazed about her upon the candles and other evidences of death. She did not seem to mind the death of her daughter, and to-day is about as usual, though speaking and moving in a dazed way.

The Silver Peak mines in Esmeralda county have been bonded by some San Francisco parties. This is one of the finest mining properties in the State. Ex-Governor Blair, of New Jersey, the owner has refused $500,000 for it. He wants $850,000.
